STREET, PARK CLOSURES TO TAKE PLACE SUNDAY DURING MIRACLE MATCH MARATHON

Waco, Texas (Feb. 19, 2009) – Due to the Miracle Match Marathon, traffic will be affected Sunday morning, March 1 throughout Waco.

Cameron Park will also be closed until approximately noon Sunday.

The event will be headquartered at Indian Spring Park, and the race courses will run throughout Waco. The marathon, along with a 5K and half-marathon, will impact areas beginning at approximately 6 a.m. Sunday. There will be limited access around Baylor University, Cameron Park and McLennan Community College. Various lanes along Austin Ave., Ridgewood Dr. and Lake Shore Dr. will be closed.

Drivers are urged to take extreme caution in the downtown area, around churches and at intersections throughout Waco. The streets will reopen by noon.

An estimated 700 people will participate in the event, which is presented by Scott & White and Waco Firefighters Association. The event raises money and awareness for the National Bone Marrow Foundation.
