SUMMER CONCERT SERIES RETURNS TO THE BANKS OF THE BRAZOS

Waco, Texas (March 23, 2016) – The City of Waco Parks and Recreation Department will host the Brazos Nights concert series this summer at Indian Spring Park.

For thirty years, these free and award-winning concert series have provided good times and great music to the community. The riverfront park hosts outstanding musicians, food trucks and family fun.

Brazos Nights kicks off April 1 with soul singer Lee Fields and the Expressions, followed by Brownout presents: Brown Sabbath, bringing Latin funk interpretations of Black Sabbath hits.

The concert lineup continues May 6 with Tejano performances from Flaco Jimenez and Los Texmaniacs.

June 10 will host a night of country music, featuring Texas bands ShinyRibs and Old 97s.

Brazos Nights concludes with an Independence Day celebration on July 4 at Touchdown Alley at McLane Stadium. Big Sam's Funky Nation will perform, followed by an H-E-B firework extravaganza over the Brazos River.

Brazos Nights is an outdoor event with plenty of grass and shade trees. Lawn chairs and blankets are welcome, but tents and pets are not allowed. Food truck items and craft beers are available for purchase. All events begin at 7 p.m.
