WCCC-TV Gives Viewers the Feeling of Being at the Cultural Arts Fest LIVE

This Saturday, September 27th at 3:30pm the Waco City Cable Channel (WCCC-TV) will premier a new feature called “YOU ARE THERE – LIVE” where we will take viewers to downtown Waco and walk all through the Cultural Arts Fest just as if they were there in person.

This totally unique experience is something never done before in Waco. Our HD camera and microphones will be the eyes and ears of viewers as we walk around the Cultural Arts Fest just like YOU ARE THERE- LIVE. There won't be an on camera host or guide, just the live events as they are happening and viewers will see and hear them live through our camera as we walk around the event.

Future YOU ARE THERE-LIVE events include the Heart of Texas Fair and Rodeo on Tuesday, October 7th at 7:30pm and the Downtown Game Day experience including the bus ride and walk into McLane Stadium for the Baylor – TCU game on October 11th. Just another way the Waco City Cable Channel involves Waco citizens in what's happening in their City.

WCCC-TV can be viewed on Time Warner and Grande cable channel 10 and in HD on Grande 810. For those who don't have cable, the same programming is streamed live at www.wccc.tv . A free downloadable app is also available from the Apple store.
