Local Children's Author Reading

Local Pastor and author, Edmund Lee Castro, will read his two faith-based children's books at the Central Library, 1717 Austin, on Tuesday, August 18 at 1:30pm. Both picture books are about a young girl named Crystal.

In Crystal and the Not-so-Scary Night, the little girl is calmed by her mother's suggestion to pray when she is frightened. Her mommy tells her a bedtime story about God's creation of the world in Crystal and Her Flying Adventure. Crystal then dreams of being able to fly to visit the wonders in the sky and world.

Copies of the books will be available for purchase with the proceeds benefitting the Friends of the Waco-McLennan County Library. For more information, please call 750-5942.
