Pump Repaired, Conservation – No Irrigation Request Continues Until 6:00 p.m. for China Spring Area

Waco, Texas (September 30, 2016) – The pump at the ground storage facility near Waco Regional Airport, which experienced a mechanical failure, has been repaired.

To allow water storage adequate time to fully recover, the city requests that water conservation and no outdoor irrigation continue until 6:00 p.m. today.

The request for conservation and no irrigation, in the China Spring area, was originally issued around 6:00 a.m. this morning after mechanical failure of a pump.

For more information, visit www.wacowater.com or call 299-CITY (2489).
