Library, Baylor, One Book One Waco Team Up for Book Signing

Waco, Texas (June 29, 2015) – The Waco-McLennan County Library recently partnered with One Book, One Waco and the Baylor Bookstore to plan an author book-signing and speaking event that is SURE to bring Waco’s summer reading selection to life.

One Book, One Waco announced its summer book selection today, an autobiography entitled Dream Again: A Story of Faith, Courage, and the Tenacity to Overcome, by Isaiah Austin. The author is a former Baylor men’s basketball player who was diagnosed with Marfan syndrome only days before he was to participate in the 2014 NBA Draft. One Book, One Waco, the Baylor Bookstore, and the Waco-McLennan County Library teamed up to bring the author to Central Library (1717 Austin Ave.) on Friday, July 10 from 4 to 6 p.m. to sign copies of his book and to talk with the public about his life. ESPN representatives have said they will be conducting a live remote broadcast of the event as well.

Mr. Austin will also be at the Baylor Bookstore earlier the same day from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. to sell and sign copies of his book. Readers can pick up a copy at the book store and have it signed there, or at the Central Library event.

Waco-McLennan County Library Services Director Essy Day said she is thrilled to be a part of the event, stating she thinks “this is a GREAT partnership, and we’re excited to be a part of these two groups and expand our programming for adults.” For further comment, she can be reached by phone at 254-750-5946 or via email at EssyD@wacotx.gov.
