FREE ESPN COLLEGE GAMEDAY SHUTTLE TO TRANSPORT FANS TO MCLANE STADIUM FOR 2ND YEAR IN A ROW

Tailgater to run from 6am-1pm and 4pm-midnight this Saturday

Waco, Texas – It's a big weekend for Baylor fans, and the return of ESPN's College GameDay live broadcast makes it even bigger! Waco Transit's free shuttle service, the Tailgater, is ready to accommodate those large crowds and transport everyone swiftly to McLane Stadium. Last year, the shuttle carried more than 2,000 fans to the ESPN event alone! The Tailgater will run from 6am to 1pm and from 4pm to midnight (one hour after the game ends) on Saturday, November 14. Park downtown and catch the Tailgater at the corner of 5th Street and Austin Avenue, in front of the ALICO building. All buses are ADA accessible and will run approximately every 10 minutes during the above stated times. A separate ADA shuttle will also be available for pickups at the BRIC (100 Research Pkwy), from 6am to midnight. Grab your friends, throw on your Baylor Blackout gear and catch the Tailgater to all the excitement! Sic 'em Bears!
