Are you interested in the future of the City of Waco and are you wishing to share your ideas on how to improve the City?

The staff of the City of Waco, in coordination with the City Council and City Plan Commission has developed a draft of The City Plan: a document which outlines several strategies to ensure the orderly development of the City of Waco and the provision of critical municipal services through the year 2040. The guiding principle of the City Plan is sustainable development in order to meet the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their own needs.

The City of Waco is providing interested citizens a unique opportunity to participate in guiding the City's future and is calling on citizens to review the draft of the City Plan and provide feedback. Three public informational meetings will be conducted to provide information regarding the City Plan and to accept comments. These meetings are scheduled for the following times and locations:

Thursday, September 24

South Waco Community Center
2815 Speight Ave
Displays available for viewing at 6:00pm
Formal Presentation begins at 6:30pm

Monday, September 28

City of Waco Operations Center
1415 North 4th St
Displays available for viewing at 12:00pm
Formal Presentation begins at 12:30pm

Tuesday, September 29

City of Waco Multipurpose Center
1020 Elm Ave
