SOLID WASTE SERVICES

Residential Solid Waste Collection:

Residential Collection means the collection of solid waste from premises used as residential or living units and includes but is not limited to single-family dwellings, duplexes (2 living units), tri-plexes (3 living units), four-plex (4 living units), apartment units (number of living units depends on the density of complex), and mobile homes. Each occupied living unit will be billed as a separate unit. The city will assume all living units are occupied. It is up to the property owner/manager to provide the City with information on the number of occupied living units.
