WACO – The Waco MPO is pleased to announce that the Association of Metropolitan Planning Organizations (AMPO), at their annual conference held this past week in Baltimore, Maryland, presented to the Waco MPO the National Award for Outstanding Overall Achievement for a Non Transportation Management Area MPO.

This award recognizes performance excellence by MPOs representing urban populations under 200,000. Recipients of this award were required to demonstrate achievement in at least 2 of the following 4 criteria: 1.) Innovation 2.) Impact on Profession 3.) Implementation and 4.) Coordination. In their presentation of this award, AMPO determined that the Waco MPO significantly accomplished each of the 4 criteria required for consideration.

Receiving the award on behalf of the Waco MPO Policy Board was Jacob Bell, P.E., Chair of the Waco MPO Policy Board and Chris Evilia, Waco MPO Director. The official presentation of the award to the MPO Policy Board will take place during the next Policy Board meeting scheduled for Thursday, November 21st at 2 p.m.
