Status of Waco Fire Chief Search Narrowed

WACO, TEXAS (February 18, 2020) - Following the retirement of Fire Chief Bobby Tatum Jr, the City of Waco engaged the national search firm of SGR to help find its next chief.

On Monday, February 10 five finalists were in town for interviews and tours of Waco. From those five the City has narrowed the selection down to two candidates.

- Richard A. Potter – 29 Year Veteran of Fire Services – Deputy Chief Pueblo Fire 2019-Present, Acting Fire Chief Pueblo, CO. 2016-2019
- Gregory L. Summers – 34 Year Veteran of Fire Services – Fire Chief Little Rock Arkansas 2009-2018

Their resumes are attached for further information regarding each candidate. The City hopes to make a decision in order to have a new chief in place by this spring.
