312TH ARMY BAND TO PERFORM FREE OUTDOOR CONCERT AT WACO MAMMOTH NATIONAL MONUMENT ON JULY 23

WACO, TEXAS (July 19, 2019) – Join the Waco Mammoth National Monument on Tuesday, July 23 as the 312th United States Army Band from Lawrence, Kansas drops by to perform a free, patriotic concert in the park!

Four ensembles, including a jazz ensemble and rock band, will perform from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Waco Mammoth National Monument, located at 6220 Steinbeck Bend Dr., Waco.

Admission to the concert is free. Seating will be provided, and visitors are also welcome to bring their own lawn chairs. Guests are reminded to wear sunscreen and bring plenty of water, as the concert will be held outdoors.

Activated on October 1, 1973 in Lawrence, Kansas as part of the 89th Army Reserve Command headquartered in Wichita, Kansas, the 312th Army Band has performed hundreds of concerts across the country and earned several awards.

For more information, call 254-750-7946.
