Free COVID-19 testing in McLennan County
Continues this week

(July 27, 2020) The Waco-McLennan County Office of Emergency Management, the Waco-McLennan County Public Health District and the Texas Department of Emergency Management are partnering to offer free COVID-19 testing sites in July and August throughout McLennan County. There are two walk-up sites and two drive-through sites. All testing sites are free. If you suspect you may have the Coronavirus (COVID-19), or think you may have been exposed to it, you are encouraged to be tested.

The testing is a cheek swab test and results are available within 24-48 hours. 600 tests will be available at each site per day. You must register for the Drive-through sites 24 hours in advance at https://texas.curativeinc.com/welcome.
