Texas Ranger Hall of Fame and Museum ranked #8 for 2019

WACO, TX (August 22, 2019) - Each year True West magazine, the leading international western American history magazine, ranks the Top Western Museums. This year the Texas Ranger Hall of Fame and Museum ranked #8 for 2019. The museum is listed on page 77 and 80 of the current issue with acknowledgement to its trustee the City of Waco.

Criteria considered for the list included quality of educational programs, exhibit content, visitor service, tourism reviews, special programs such as our new Texas Ranger Talks, newsletter, web site, sponsorship of research and collections.

The highly dedicated staff deserves the lion's share of credit for this achievement. Small in number, and working with limited resources, they gained international distinction over institutions with many times the staff, operating and capital budgets.

The article also notes the museum's 55 years of service with 4.5 million visitors and its service to the remarkable story of America's oldest state law enforcement agency.
