Story of the Dr Pepper Museum as told by Wilton Lanning

Prior to the recent death of longtime Waco historian and co-founder of the Dr Pepper Museum, Wilton Lanning, the Waco City Cable Channel was fortunate to have Wilton tell the story of the development of the museum to the cameras in our studio. We have completed the production of the video and are proud to present it to the public for the first time this week.

The video titled “The Dr Pepper Museum Story – Wilton Lanning” will air on WCCC-TV at the times and days below. It can also be viewed anytime on demand from our website www.wccc.tv. Select “Programs” then “Museums of Waco”.
